It was one year, we did some fairly good party on this year. However, we must party more at summer. Take care of the fudge & your tomato.
Keep solid you die & lick
hoves & biffs
bro. Rich Len

Joe,
it was quite an experience
in Alaska this year, wouldn't you say? Cheating on all tests!
We would of never made it w/out your leads. Well, I am glad this year we're finally over and I can't wait until next year!
Great summer and will see ya
Saki Care
Love
Theresa

Don't you like it?
I've had a lot of guys & then beat the shit out of them because they were fags!

MISSOULA, MONTANA
VOLUME NINE

Joe,
I was rine a piece of this year. You a pretty solid dude - some hard feelings, ay?
We can forgive and forget
and go swimming, fishing, and gopher hunting this summer and be civil to each other. Seriously good-luck with Sonja. So - still - be buddies.

QUEEN ADELE BOULTER AND KING MIKE HARRINGTON

'81 Homecoming Court rides atop the 1981 Jr. Prom leftovers. Towards the back sit King Mike and Queen Adele.

The 1982 annual staff unanimously chose to dedicate this year's annual to the Development Office. Hard-working Sister Rita Mudd, Joan Jasumback, and Angie LaCasse donate countless hours of time and energy towards the support of our high school. Without them, Loyola Sacred Heart would not be a reality. These three women are in essence Loyola's backbone. In appreciation for all your work, Sister Rita Mudd, Mrs. Joan Jasumback, and Mrs. Angie LaCasse, here's to you . . .

Believe It or Not, People Work Here

Pictured above are this year's photographers hard at work: Gary Carmichael, Mark Long, and Beau Natural. Below: John Neuman was a very important part of this year's yearbook staff. John was sick the day we took the group picture but we couldn't leave him out. Thanks John, we couldn't have done it without you!

The 1982 SPIRIT Staff: B.J. Schuler, Gary Carmichael, Beau Natural, Adele Boulter, Pat Haggarty, Scott Hoffman, and our Moderator Mr. Rick McDonald. Missing: John Neuman and Mark Long.

In late September 1981 I was asked by Mr. McDonald to become the 1982 SPIRIT Editor. Of course I said, "Sure!", thinking how much fun I'd have. At that time, I knew absolutely nothing about a yearbook except that they exist to look at, to laugh at, and to remember "all the crazy things we did". Now that it is almost five months later, and our yearbook is close to completion, I know absolutely nothing about a yearbook except that they exist to give an Editor a short temper, high blood pressure, and memories of "all the crazy things we did". Being a yearbook Editor as lots of work, but I really enjoyed the opportunity. Not one person on the staff (including our moderator) had the vaguest idea where to begin. We put our heads together, and this is the final result. A special "Thank You" to everyone who helped out this year:

Scott Hoffman, Sports Editor-Scott, you were a great help, my right arm. Most of all, thank you for your smiles and jokes that kept me laughing while I really felt like pulling my hair out. B.J. Schuler, Photo Editor-I don't know how you could stand that darkroom full of ancient equipment, but you did it. Sorry for the pressures, and thanks for your help. John Neuman and Pat Haggarty-These guys were the lay-out specialists. Thank you for the countless hours you gave this year!

To Anyone else who helped out at various times throughout the year- Mike Murphy, Mike Harrington, Dennis Moylan, Chris Peterson, Laird MacDonald, Brenda Dietrich, John Fischer, Eileen Conley, and all others whom I might have forgotten-all your help was greatly appreciated! Best of luck to the students of LSH always. I hope you enjoy your 1982 SPIRIT!! Thank You.

Mr. Tom Wogsland, pictured at the right, is in his second year at L.S.H. as director of the Music Department. In the time he has been with us, he has started an "All Girls Choir" doubled the size of the "Choral Ensemble" and has done miraculous wonders with his rookie band. (below) His "Band" has developed from just 13 members, to its present 21 members, and is still growing. The Girls Choir in its first year in existence, shows much promise for the years to come. As for this year's Ensemble, it again shows a good outlook for its future existence. Last year under the direction of Mr. Wogsland for only the second semester, he led the choir to The District Music Festival, and recieved a "1" which on a scale of 1-5, is the best a choir can achieve and not to mention that it was the first year a Class 'B' school had recieved a one. The Ensemble has a lot planned for the year 1981-82, including The District Music Festival, a Spring Concert with Frenchtown, and a music tour of Canada, planned for sometime in late March, early April. We would like to thank Mr. Wogsland for what he has done for all of us involved in music, and much Good-Luck for your years to come.

RAM ACTIVITY CENTER GROUND BREAKING '82

On January 25, 1982, Loyola broke ground with the president of the School Board, Jack McInnis, presiding. Several grabbed shovels to throw the dirt as the project got under way, among these; A.S.B. Mike Harrington, Father Goebel, Sister Rita Mudd, Jack McInnis and Mr. Twite. This ends the crowded, stuffy and noisy old gym and now begins a new tradition of Ram Power in a new gym.

Thanks Mom!!!

Below: The Rams Defensive Line Pete Tripp, Jeff Speiser, John Fischer, Lew Tripp, and Joe Fischer with Chris Beccari.

Thank's guys!!!

Above: The secret to being number one in defense in the Western B four years in a row is to have a defensive line like this one: Haggarty, Beccari, Cote, Keast, LaBelle, Anderson, Loran, Speiser, Fischer, L. Tripp, P. Tripp. Right: The Tripp Brothers. Pete is on his way to make a tackle, Lew is just getting up after destroying a Darby Lineman. Both made All-Conference. Below: Chris Beccari takes this kick in the belly while Peter Tripp comes leaping to the reserve.

Above: André Patterson, Freshman Coach and an Assistant Varsity Coach, came to LSH to help out, while attending U of M full time. So far, his help has been priceless and he has been of great service to us. Thank You very much Dré!! Below: Pat Haggarty #23, rips through the defensive line to gain 50 yds, only to have it called back on a penalty.

The Awesome Offense:
Rushed 231 yards per game-
#1 in the division in Total offense - Cote, LaBelle, Keast, Haggarty, Anderson, Beccari, Tripp, Fischer, Callahan, Ahlin, Speiser.

Pat Callahan #51 and another Ram attempt to block a PAT and barely miss.

Left: Jr. Post Tim Jenkins takes a glance at the basket and decides that it looks too far up there especially with that tree in front of him.

Brian McCullough gives the flick of the wrist on a very crucial freethrow. Mike Mann is the other Loyola player giving the camera a smile as the rest of the people head for the rebound.

Another one of Brian as he goes in for the lay-in with one hand. That is your hand isn't it Brian?

Freshman Basketball 1981-1982: Top: Don Gillespie, Aaron Fergusen, Gordie Hughes, John Wevers, David Butler, Marc Lester, Darrel Anderson, Nic Beccari. Bottom: Rick Stiles, Kevin Martello, George Behner, Coach Brad Tschida, Bryan Tripp, Roger Diettrich. The frosh finished the year with a 12 and 5 record.

This is Peter Tripp, a sophomore. We missed Pete during the football section but couldn't leave him out because we are very proud of him. Pete was 1st Team All-Conference Defensive End. We're really looking forward to you next year Pete, you're a fantastic athlete!!
